New IETs

- introducing a new set of learning outcomes that cover the full five years of incorporating the skills, knowledge and attributes for prescribing, to enable pharmacists to independently prescribe from the point of registration
- emphasising the application of science in clinical practice and including a greater focus on the key skills needed for current and future roles – including professional judgement, management of risk, and diagnostic and consultation skills
- making the fifth year of initial education and training a foundation training year with strengthened supervision support, and collaborative working between higher education institutions, statutory education bodies and employers
- having a greater emphasis on equality, diversity and inclusion to combat discrimination and deal with health inequalities
